

Early access features

This section includes documentation of new features that Perfecto releases to select customers. The features are still under development, and therefore may have certain limitations in coverage and functionality. Customers in the Early Access group are expected to help pinpoint areas of improvement in the features and the implementation.

If you wish to join the Early Access program for any feature, contact your CSM

- Automate UI elements based on iOS accessibility attributes
- New UI